

Report of EC Meeting held in Rotterdam, 14-15 July 2019

Last 13 and 14 July 2019, EAWOP's Executive Committee (EC) met and discussed the following issues:

- The president welcomed the new EC members and explained how the EC meetings are organised.
- Each of the officers introduced themselves and talked about their perspective on EAWOP.
- Tasks were divided between the EC officers. Annemarie Hiemstra is the Secretary General, Michela Cortina will be the Constituent Liaison and in charge of Worklab and Europsy. David Holman will be in charge of Small Group Meeting and supporting Alliance of Psychology Liaison and Congress Liaison). Dragos Iliescu will be in charge of Policy Impact (shared with Frederik Anseel), ENOP liaison, communication and treasurer. Janine Bosak will continue to be in charge of EAWOP Early Career Summer School, Journals, and Alliance of Psychology liaison. Barbara Smorzewska will be the congress liaison and in charge of Practitioner-oriented initiatives.
- The member discussed about the volunteer role description and the call for volunteers.
- The creation of a new task force on recruiting people to lead the Policy Impact Institute was discussed.
- The members discussed about the general review of the Torino congress and the main critical and positive points. Based on these points, recommendations for Glasgow local organizers will be made.
- An update on the Glasgow 2021 Congress organization progress was presented, as well as the progress on the 2023 congress bid. Strategy for finding 2025 bids were discussed.
- The members discussed about the congress model. The congress model will be updated.
- The members discussed about the General Assembly minutes and the procedure for confirming the minutes and reports.
- The Constituent Council Meeting Minutes from Torino, May 2019 were approved.
- Future management of Website was discussed.
- All of the conference videos will soon be available on the EAWOP website
- An update on the three journals of EAWOP was discussed.
- The call for the next Small Group Meetings will be sent before the summer holidays.
- The next EC meeting will take place on 17th to 19th October in Ghent, Belgium.